KINGSBURY DIRECTORY.

EXPLANATORY.

The name in parenthesis () after a woman's name is that of her husband. The spelling bery and berry is indicated in some instances.

An asterisk () before the name means dead, date unknown; while an asterisk () before the date gives year of death; the dates given are last known address. Some are quite old but valuable, furnishing a possible clue for renewed search in completing records.

There are doubtless some erroneous addresses, and it is hoped that those examining the directory will furnish the compiler all necessary corrections in those published and the correct address of any who may have been omitted.

This will enable the Historian of the Association to keep his copy up to date.

The list of towns, etc., by name of Kingsbury, indicates that many of our name have been pioneers in various parts of the country, leaving their imprint upon the inhabitants as well as upon our geographies.

I have omitted occupation and street number as adding to cost of issue. In most cases these can be furnished on request.

In new addresses sent please send these two items as well as names in full, not initials.
